To the Tallahassee Woman Magazine,

My name is Naomi Cox and I'm a junior at Florida State University. I'm majoring in the College of Arts and Sciences Editing, Writing, & Media (EWM) English program as well as pursuing a communications minor. I was very pleased to learn that your company is offering internships for college students. As an English Major with a passion for editing and writing, I know I'm a great candidate and would appreciate your consideration. Being a part of the EWM program at Florida State has not only given me the opportunity to fine-tune my writing skills in a variety of genres and styles but has presented me with the chance to take my writing a step further and design sample magazine layouts using programs such as Adobe InDesign and work at the digital studio located on campus. I've also completed multiple other projects I believe you would find compelling including interviews, research papers, poetry, and more. All of these experiences have provided me with the skills that are needed to be successful in this field.

The thing that I found most attractive about your magazine is the culture your company has created surrounding empowering women. The content in your articles is superb from the rest of the magazine places in Tallahassee. I believe I could contribute to the amazing standards this company holds.

I would be more than welcome to answer any questions about the chance to intern at your establishment. You can reach me at nsc22b@fsu.edu or +123-456-7890. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Naomi Cox
